

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

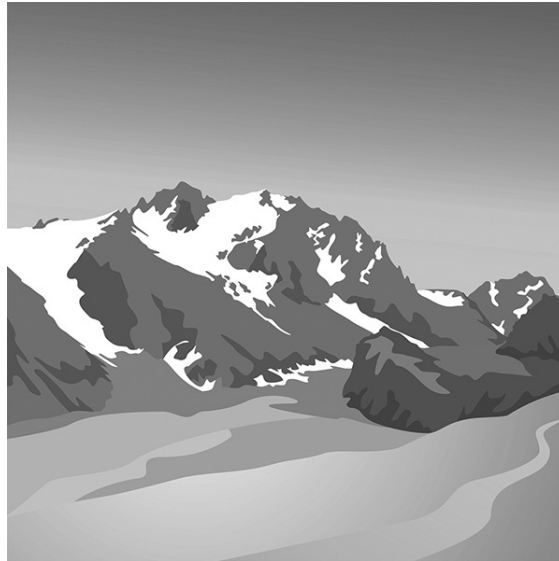

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Writing Spot: The Incident on Bright Angel Trail

Learning Outcome

Relate information about health and healthy habits in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can describe health problems.
- I can express obligation.
- I can write orders and/or instructions.

Ask your partner:

- Have you injured yourself before?
How?
- Did you complete an incident report form?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa hobbles with Sally's help to a first aid center at Indian Garden. Listen to their conversation with the first ranger they meet. Is he helpful?

* To "hobble" means to walk in an awkward way, typically because of pain from an injury.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Indian Garden, thank goodness.
Sally: You should get off that foot right away. Your ankle is really swollen.
Ranger: Hello ladies. How can I help you? Ohhh ... that looks painful! You should get some ice on that.
Vanessa: It's very painful. I think I twisted it.
Ranger: Unfortunately, you must complete an incident report before I can provide you with any pain medication or assistance.
Vanessa: That's crazy! Sally, pass me that form and a pen.
Sally: Can't she fill it in later? Why must she complete it right now?
Vanessa: There are so many questions on this form too!
Sally: Give it to me. I can complete it for you.
Vanessa: My ankle is turning blue. Look at the bruise.
Ranger: Make sure that she signs the form herself.
Sally: Oh brother... Yes, yes, there you go. Now can you please help her?

Let's Practice!

What happens at the ranger station? Does Vanessa get the help she needs?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use pass, must, should, Give.

1. You _____ get some ice on that.
2. _____ it to me. I can complete it for you.
3. You _____ complete an incident report before I can provide you with any pain medication.
4. Sally, _____ me that form and a pen.

Let's Practice!

How can I help you? Do you have an appointment?

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Write each word in the correct order.

1. ankle / swollen / . / Your / really / is

2. I / I / it / . / think / twisted

3. painful / It's / . / very

4. . / is / My / blue / ankle / turning

Extension Activity

Time for a role play.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Create a 2 minute role play with a partner.
- Imagine you are a ranger at a national park. Your partner is a hiker who injured himself/herself on a hiking trail.
- What is the injury? How can the ranger help?
- Ask for information to use in an incident report.
- Use the modals should and must to offer suggestions and recommendations.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I create and act in a role play.

☐ ☐

I ask for information to use in incident report.

☐ ☐

I use modals when creating my incident report.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to get off (verb): to sit down, to take weight off a leg e.g. You should get off that ankle.
- oh brother (expression): a sign of frustration
e.g. Oh brother! Now can you help her?
- assistance (noun): the act of helping someone
e.g. The ranger gave the hiker some assistance.
- witness (noun): a person who sees an event
e.g. Sally was a witness to the incident.
- to follow up (verb): to check something in the future
Example: Let's follow up on this next week.
- incident (noun): a minor event
e.g. You have to complete an incident report.
- swollen (adjective): larger than usual
e.g. Vanessa's ankle is very swollen.

Learning Points

Visiting the Doctor's Office

There are many ways to ask for and receive information at a doctor's office or a first aid station.

When you are at the reception, you might hear phrases like:

Do you have an appointment?

I'd like to see a doctor.

I would like to make an appointment.

Please take a seat.

You may hear these phrases during your appointment:

What are your symptoms?

How can I help you?

What's the problem?

You may use these phrases during your appointment:

I've got a ...

temperature

sore throat

headache

I think I twisted my ankle.

