Let's Start!

Let's book a hiking tour in the Grand Canyon.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What type of travel advertisements do you look at?
- What information do you find helpful?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things to do or take on a trip.
- I can use the infinitive of purpose.
- I can ask for and respond to suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Let's find out about a hiking tour into the Grand Canyon.

* A "hiking tour" in the Grand Canyon is usually one or several days long.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Looking for excitement in your life? Camp with us in the Grand Canyon!

Come to the Grand Canyon to get away from the stress of everyday life.

Sleep in the open air to have stories to tell of the wild.

Climb with us to see a panorama of the canyon.

Why not follow the Bright Angel Trail? It's a safe walk.

Hiking boots are important.

A fleece jacket is a must.

Bring gloves to keep warm.

A water bottle is essential.

See spectacular views.

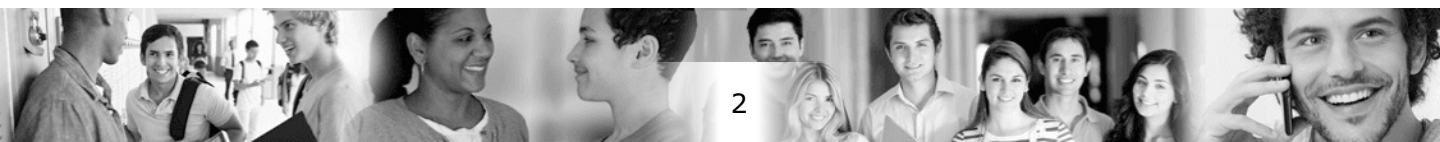

Go on a challenging adventure to learn about natural history.

Hike along the Colorado River.

Climb the Bright Angel Trail to the campground.

Spot bighorn sheep.

Enjoy the morning light on the canyon walls.

Let's Practice!

Let's get ready for a hike!

*Instructions: Find and fix the mistake. Each sentence has 1 mistake. Choose the correct phrases from: a must, essential, important, keep warm.

1. Hiking boots are useless.
2. A fleece jacket is optional.
3. Bring gloves to catch animals.
4. A water bottle is unnecessary.

Let's Practice!

The hiking tour sounds good!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.
